Kaeja d'Dance Celebrates the 3rd Kaeja Lounge!

The Kaeja Lounge promises to be a great party and an important fundraiser for the creative endeavours of Kaeja d'Dance. The event will take place on Thursday, July 24 from 7:00-9:30 PM at Toronto's DeLeon White Gallery (1096 Queen Street).

The Lounge will feature screenings of two short Kaeja d'Dance films, live performances by Karen and Allen Kaeja with the amazing David Buchbinder Trio and an exhibit by visual artists Anna Frlan, Lezli Rubin-Kunda and Steve Bradley. In addition to these cultural delights, there will also be a silent auction with items generously donated by George Dragonoff, Blake Martin, Steve Stober and Cylla Von Tiedemann. Please enjoy our tasty Hors d'oeuvres and complimentary bar! Tickets are $50 and are available at 416-516-6030, carly@kaeja.org and at the door the evening of the event. A charitable tax receipt will be issued for a portion of each ticket.

At the forefront of Kaeja d'Dance's 2003-2004 season is the creation of new works. Asylum of Spoons, Allen Kaeja's latest commissioned work, will be in the development process at the Banff Centre for the Arts residency and in Toronto before it premieres at the Canada Dance Festival in June 2004. In addition the creation and production of dance film will continue as we plan to make two new films for the CBC and Bravo!FACT. We will be filming Old Country and Departure in August of 2003 and are thrilled to have these new additions to our "dance on film" series.

Kaeja d'Dance is celebrating its thirteenth year.
